Sir,

Subject —

With reference to your letter No.L.6101-8/ML.139-37-5 dated 15-1-1938, regarding framing of bye-laws for enforcing compulsory registration of marriages in the several Town Municipalities in the District, I have the honor to forward, herewith the draft bye-laws framed in respect of Chiknaikanahalli Town Municipality. The model bye-laws appended to G.O.No.2990-30-16 P.H.154-36-2 dated 7-10-1937 have been closely followed in this connection in accordance with the instructions issued in your letter under reply.

In framing these bye-laws the procedure fixed under Sec.48 (2) and (3) of the Town Municipal Act has generally been followed. Except for the fact that the opinion of the Municipal Councillors in the matter of publishing the draft bye-law for the information of the public and inviting objections, if any, within 4-4-1938 was obtained by circulation for want of time, instead of holding a preliminary meeting of the Council for the purpose. Accordingly, they were published in the town on 26-3-1938. It is reported that no objections were received and that the council in their meeting held on 5-4-1938 agreed to the adoption of the same in the town.

In the circumstances, I request that sanction of Government to the proposed bye-laws may be kindly accorded. The resolutions
